Directors Notes

Welcome to our new pantomime 'The Swan Queen and the Three Dwarves, originally collected as 'The Three Little Men in the Woods' by the Brothers Grimm. This adaptation by Steve White (and others) combines the traditional elements of panto with some innovative new ideas.

Having been a member of Headley Theatre Club for nearly 30 years I have enjoyed being in many shows, most recently appearing as Polly in Fawltly Towers. However, this year I took my first plunge into pantomime direction. It has been a lot of work but also a lot of fun! For me the joy of this production has been watching the cast and crew develop the show as we rehearsed, putting in their own ideas and bringing the characters to life. We were very sorry when Thomas Hiller had to pull out as 'Stumpy', due to illness (he made an excellent dwarf!). However, Jo Smith has ably stepped once more into the breach and is keeping the other dwarves on their toes.....

I feel very lucky to have had a wonderful team supporting me, many of whom you will never see on stage, but who quietly work their little socks off in the background. Not to mention a great cast and a talented group of musicians, as I hope you will agree, as you settle back and enjoy the show!

We are very pleased this year to be able to collaborate with Ash Puppets and bring you the talents of 'The Three Puppeteers'. I am sure you will enjoy their contribution as much as we have...

This year Headley Theatre Club are pleased to support our drummer, Zak White, in his efforts to raise £3,200 for a scientific expedition to Svalbard with Bohunt School in 2015.

He will be selling his Oat-munchies, in the foyer, to go with your teas and coffees. The committee can personally vouch for their tastiness!

The puppet group meets once a month on the 3rd Tuesday from 6.30pm at the Headley church rooms, and is open to anyone over 9 yrs.
