

Link Walk G – Liss to Petersfield

Distance approximately 4½ miles/7km

The walk starts at Liss Station and ends at Petersfield Station;
refreshment at the *Harrow, Steep

- 1 From Liss station, turn left past the shops and bear right at the mini-roundabout. In about 250yards, turn right along Andlers Ash Road and follow this for half a mile.
- 2 Just before the railway level crossing, turn left along Stodham Lane. Follow this as it rises gently, bearing right at a triangular junction at the top of the hill. Bear right at Stodham Park and follow the lane across the river. Bear left in front of the gates to The Dragon House where the surfacing ends and cross the railway line at a pedestrian level crossing (taking normal precautions). Soon the lane becomes surfaced once more, and Petersfield Golf Club course is on both sides of you. Follow the lane to its junction with the dual carriageway of the A3.

Walk G

- 3 Turn left along the cycle & footpath by the edge of the road, following it as it soon bears left and descends to a junction with a smaller road. Turn right along this road under the A3, then after the bridge take a track immediately to the left. Cross a stile by a metal gate and go up steps to the right. Follow the footpath round the edge of a field, then through woodland to emerge by some houses facing a stream.

Houses by the stream near to The Harrow, Steep

- 4 Turn left to arrive shortly at The Harrow Inn (see p.59). From here follow Circular Walk 11 (from Point 9) to Petersfield Station.

